BISHOP GIBSON IMPROVES

Condition, While Serious, Shows Mark-ed Change for the Better.

The Rt. Rev. Robert A. Gibson, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, who has been seriously ill at his residence, 90% Park Avenue, was reported last night to be resting comfortably. His condition for the last few days, has been critical enough to alarm his family and friends, although his physicians held out strong hopes of his complete recovery. He is suffering from a valvular heart affliction. Unless an unexpected relapse occurs, the bishop will regain his strength within a few weeks.

Council Falls to Meet. Council Fails to Meet.

Lacking a quorum because several of the members were engaged in committee meetings, the City Council did not meet last night, and President Peters announced that the special session called to consider the report of the Committee on Charter Changes would be held to-morrow night.

How to Choose Life's Work.

The Richmond College Y. M. C. A. has arranged a series of seven lectures to be given on the general topic, "Choosing Life's Work." The first of the lectures will be given at II o'clock to-morrow morning in the college chapel by Dr. J. C. Metcalf, of the English department, who will speak on "Principles That Should Guide the Young Man in Choosing His Life's Work." The other lectures will be given at intervals of a week, and prominent men of the State will be the speakers.
